

CELEBRATING THE WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

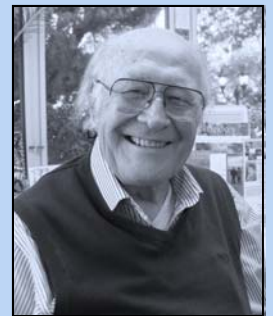

Tuesday, January 25, 2011
9:30am to 1:00pm
“That We May Be One”
WALK THE WALK
BREATHE A PRAYER
with the Rt. Rev. Alexei Smith
& Lloyd Young

“That we may be one” – has been the ecumenical dream of several denominations over many years. It was expressed by Pope John Paul II in his encyclical entitled THEY MAY BE ONE. In response to that hope, lay and clergy are invited together to WALK THE WALK – BREATHE A PRAYER. The half-day retreat includes no sermons or lectures. Each person is invited to select a short prayer then walk in silence on the retreat grounds, breathing that prayer while listening for the whispered word of the Spirit who dwells within. Journaling follows and sharing of prayer experiences.

Fr. Alexei Smith is a Melkite Greek Catholic Priest and Pastor of Saint Andrew Russian Greek Catholic Church and Administrator of Saint Paul Melkite Greek Catholic Mission, both in El Segundo, CA. He is also the Ecumenical and Interreligious Officer of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

Experienced in contemplative retreat leadership, Lloyd co-authored a book called A Sarca Ardente (The Burning Bush) which documents the relationship Of contemplative prayer to effective social action.
