 EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT TO THE BISHOP

WES DAVIS
 SECRETARY

To the People Called Methodist, Greetings in the Name of the Risen Christ!

Earlier this spring I joined in a gathering with Pan-Methodist bishops; they are our partners from our historic African American denominations. We were reminded that episkopé means “watching over one another in love.” As your episcopal leader preparing for our time together in Redlands at the annual conference session, I have been praying and reminding the superintendents who are extensions of this office, that this is the nature and purpose of our work.

It is especially on my mind that the annual conference is the place where you render account of your fruitfulness. This is where we ask, “What have you done with what we gave you?” How have you moved toward the vision of sharing Christ with the world, the fulfillment of our mission, faithful discipleship and a “more excellent way” of being Christ’s people in the world? We will tell one another about our work, and we will plan for the ministry ahead of us.

I look forward to Rev. Darryl Fairchild joining us in this year’s emphasis on Working with the Poor: Creating Communities of Justice and Compassion. Darryl is a community organizer in Dayton, Ohio, and I have known him since he was a seminary student in 1992. His presence and preaching will be a blessing to us all.

It will also be a delight to celebrate the service of ordination with the Rev. Lopeti Taufu from the Free Wesleyan Church in Tonga. He was president of the Church there when I visited in 1995, when I stayed in his home for a week and was welcomed and inspired.

Learning workshop sessions will offer the opportunity to glean ideas to take home to our congregations for help in ministry during the coming year. And we will be electing delegates to General and jurisdictional conferences.

We will also hear proposals for the essential ministry teams, our comprehensive strategic plan for ministry with Hispanic people, and next steps in camping, mission areas, and other aspects of our shared ministries.

At the opening worship service, we will gather waters from all over our Conference, bringing them together so symbolize and focus our work of compassion and righteousness, so that “justice flows down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.”

Come to the abundant waters, and be renewed as Christ’s community!

Sincerely,
Bishop Mary Ann Swenson

Biography of Bishop Swenson

Mary Ann Swenson was born in Pine Bluff, Arkansas and raised in Jackson, Mississippi where she was active at Capitol Street Methodist Church. She majored in religion at Millsaps College in Jackson, and graduated in 1969.

In 1968 she married Jeff Swenson of Elma, Washington and they soon moved to Claremont, California where she enrolled in the School of Theology. Rev. Swenson was ordained deacon in 1973 and elder in 1976 having consequently earned her Doctor of Ministry degree from the School in 1975. Her local pastoral ministry included

Claremont U.M.C., California; Orchards U.M.C., Vancouver, Washington; and First United Methodist Church, Wenatchee, Washington. In 1983 she was appointed Superintendent of the Puget Sound District of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference.

In 1992, Rev. Dr. Mary Ann Swenson was elected to the Episcopacy at the Western Jurisdictional Conference in Las Vegas, Nevada. She was assigned to the Denver Area, and gave leadership there until July of 2000, when she was assigned to the Los Angeles Area, including the California-Pacific Annual Conference and the Korean Mission of the Western Jurisdictional Conference. During that time, she also served as president of the General Council on Finance and Administration of the denomination. In 2008, her assignment to the Los Angeles Area was extended to 2012, and she now serves as president of the church's General Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns.

With her husband Jeff, Bishop Mary Ann maintains an active lifestyle as a cyclist, and commutes locally by city bus: she has said, "John Wesley's 'the world is my parish' takes on new meaning when you ride the bus each day." She has become an outspoken leader in the denomination and in her communities, calling for a redefinition of the purpose of the church in a rapidly changing world. Bishop Mary Ann continues to lead the church with passion toward becoming a more inclusive community, filled with grace, compassion and justice, growing in more perfect love of God and neighbor.

The Mission of the California-Pacific Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church

From “The Mission and Ministry of the Church,” page 87, 2008 Book of Discipline

...The mission of the Church is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by proclaiming the good news of God’s grace and by exemplifying Jesus’ command to love God and neighbor, thus seeking the fulfillment of God’s reign and realm in the world. The fulfillment of God’s reign and realm in the world is the vision Scripture holds before us. The United Methodist Church affirms that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, the Savior of the world, and the Lord of all. As we make disciples, we respect persons of all religious faiths and we defend religious freedom for all persons. Jesus’ words in Matthew provide the Church with our mission: “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you” (28:19-20), and “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. . . . And you shall love your neighbor as yourself” (22:37, 39). . . .Whenever United Methodism has had a clear sense of mission, God has used our Church to save persons, heal relationships, transform social structures, and spread scriptural holiness, thereby changing the world. In order to be truly alive, we embrace Jesus’ mandate to love God and to love our neighbor and to make disciples of all peoples.

The Vision for the California-Pacific Annual Conference

To Be the Cup Overflowing ~ in a spiritually thirsty, physically hurting world, so that all might “have life, and have it abundantly.”

- ❶ To overflow with Grace:
What it looks like: people being disciples to make disciples; people walking the Wesleyan Way in fellowship with others; people creating communities where “the least, the last and the lonely” may experience God’s transforming grace, and are nurtured along their journey of faith, practicing Wesley’s Acts of Piety.

- ❷ To overflow with Compassion:
What it looks like: communities of believers being “the Body of Christ” in specific places of ministry, expressing God’s transforming compassion through the practice of Wesley’s Acts of Mercy.

- ❸ To overflow with Justice:
What it looks like: the Body of Christ fulfilling God’s prophetic call to speak truth to power on behalf of the powerless, so that grace, compassion and the life abundant may abound for all.

John Wesley’s essentials:

1. Know God,
2. Preach Christ, and
3. Seek Justice.

The Five Essential Ministry Teams for carrying out the mission of the Annual Conference toward its vision:

TEAM	PURPOSE	FIRST 3 PRIMARY OUTCOMES
LEADERSHIP	The Leadership EMT of the Cal-Pac Annual conference is dedicated to supporting our Faith Communities* through identifying and transforming Christian disciples into fruitful, Spirit-led leaders.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Faithful, fruitful lay leadership, and clergy leadership who are called, equipped, motivated, and effectively nurturing the “making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.” 2. Faith communities (ie. Churches, mission congregations, Campus Ministries, etc.) that develop leadership who can proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ in many contexts. 3. An integrated process of recruiting, training, and supporting clergy who are competent and “going on to perfection” resulting in a dynamic and growing ministry.
NEW MINISTRIES	We strategically cultivate, plant, and grow healthy, fruitful ministries by equipping and resourcing leaders and congregations for the transformation of our radically diverse region.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Change the culture of our Annual Conference to reflect a new ministry orientation. We should always be looking for opportunities to start New Ministries and birth New Ministries from existing ministries. 2. Plant healthy, fruitful ministries that reflect the diversity of our mission field. 3. Increase the number of GROWING & VITAL churches.
JUSTICE & COMPASSION	To empower, connect and resource laity, clergy, congregations, and communities as they meaningfully engage in ministries of justice and compassion both locally and globally.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Promote a framework for networking of and partnerships between local churches and communities organized to achieve common goals in justice and compassion ministries. 2. Identify linkages of churches and/or informal groups organized around a common cause. 3. Support emerging task forces that respond to particular justice and/or compassion issues.
RESOURCE	To be effective stewards of personnel, property, and money to empower the laity and clergy of Cal-Pac churches, Districts and the Annual Conference, to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A Conference Budget for the Five Essential Ministry Teams. 2. Benefits for Clergy/Staff of Annual Conference (Active & Retired). 3. Effective Management of Conference and Real Property Assets & Insurance to support the work of the local church.
NAVIGATION	Steward of the mission of the Church in our area, listening to God’s call, and setting the course toward God’s vision. To navigate is to focus on the destination, strategize how to go forward, develop the system for achievement, align shared resources, monitor and hold the organization accountable for progress, identify both opportunities and obstacles, and adjust course to reach the destination.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Clarity of Direction: discern God’s direction and articulate a clear vision for our common ministry as confirmed by our Annual Conference and in collaboration with the other EMTs. 2. To communicate the vision clearly, often, and in all our diversity of languages. 3. Ministry Aligned with Vision: to foster the connection and collaboration of the Essential Ministry Teams in order to clarify and strengthen the focus on the vision.

The EMTs guiding scripture: “I am going to do something new. It is already happening. Don’t you recognize it? I will clear a way in the desert. I will make rivers on dry land.” – Isaiah 43:19.
