

The Cup Overflowing 2012

Weaving Communities of Shalom and Wholeness

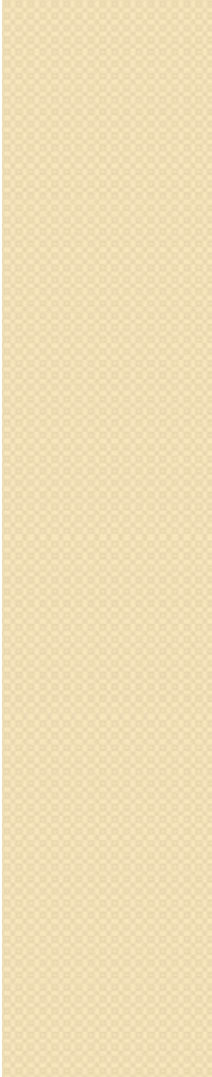

Where in our church and world today do we see fear and anxiety used as a basis for action?

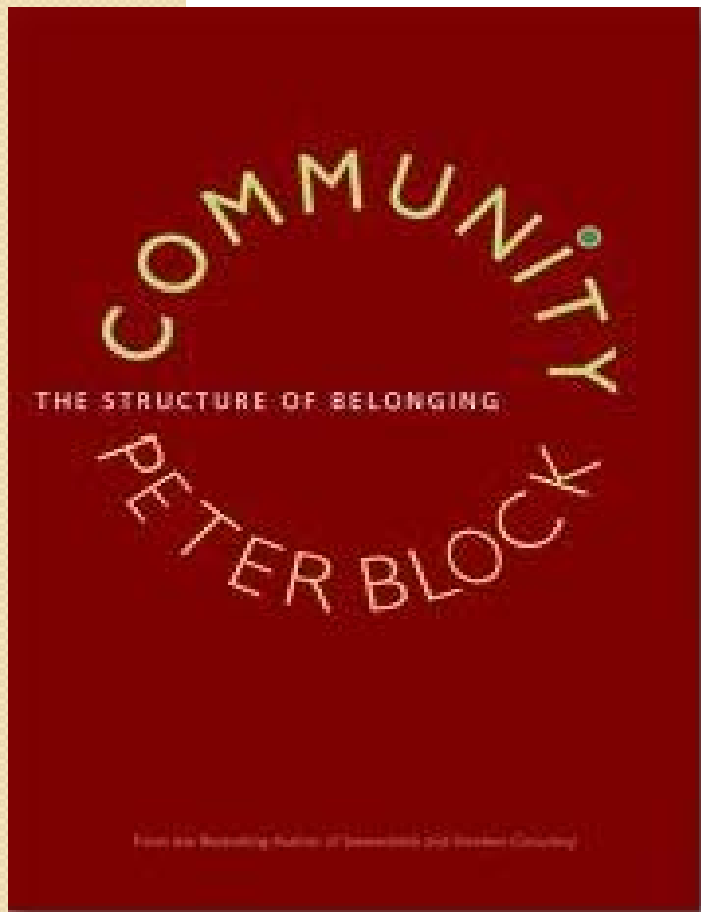

Journey Themes

1. Scarcity, anxiety and fear are the enemies of the common good.
2. There is an alternative – covenantal commitment to the common good
3. The common good is about community solidarity and destiny – weaving communities of shalom and wholeness

What opportunities do you see to speak back to the spirit of scarcity which keeps us from embracing the common good (solidarity and destiny)?

Gifts- focusing on the gifts we have to share

Associational life- the ways in which people come together to do good works and serve others

Transformation through language – the way we see the world

Adaptive Challenge

To redirect the flow of attention, energy, and resources to an intense concentration on fostering and sustaining an increase in the number of vital congregations effective in making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Annual Conference

Stewards and extends the mission in the area

- 3 opportunities
 - Equip leaders to reach new people
 - Equip leaders to help members become growing vital disciples
 - Cultivate the quality of relationship members have with each other and with those they serve.

What observations do you have about the way in which Cal-pac stewards and extends by equipping local churches?
