To my brothers and sisters in faith,

Greetings in the grace-filled name of Christ!

The seasons are turning around us yet again, the leaves changing colors and our children back in school. With this turning, we remember our time called together in June for Annual Conference, the time when Wesleyan ‘Christian conferencing’ once more reveals God’s grace through our discussions, worship, sharing and celebrations. It was a grand time together, for which I give thanks to all.

The June 2008 Session was our first gathering of the new quadrennium, the four year period marked by our General Conferences. I invited us to embrace the general church focus on four key initiatives as our annual themes during the quadrennium: Leadership, New and Renewed Places for New People, Poverty and Global Health. This year we focused on ‘developing principled Christian leaders,’ which has already been at the center of our connectional work.

Our time together in bible study was led by the Rev. Dr. Randy Maddox, from the Divinity School at Duke University: he spoke from his specialty in Wesleyan theology, opening our hearts and minds to challenging questions rooted in how people across the ages have listened to God and offered themselves in leadership for each new era of the church. My prayer is that we too will prove what we heard and what we hear daily by our various roles of leadership through the church and into the world.

Once again we enjoyed excellent music under the guidance of our own Greg Norton; and we always look forward to the Saturday Youth Service, but who knew we could be so lifted up, so encouraged and energized at the end of four long days by their bold passion! Only concluding with the Ordination Service Saturday evening could possibly follow that, and what tears of joy we shared as another class of leaders put themselves forward for the Church and the Gospel.

We are all called to go forward, and I am eager as we look to the days ahead. My thanks to the Journal team, especially our Conference Co-Secretaries, Rev. Dan Lewis and Ms. Leanne Nakanishi, for their skill and dedication and making this Journal a tool for our connection and our ministry. May all these words be brought to life by our daily witness to God who is transforming the world through Christ each day.

Shalom!

BISHOP'S BIOGRAPHY

Mary Ann Swenson was born in Pine Bluff, Arkansas and raised in Jackson, Mississippi where she was active at Capitol Street Methodist Church. She majored in religion at Millsaps College in Jackson, and graduated in 1969.

In 1968 she married Jeff Swenson of Elma, Washington and they soon moved to Claremont, California where she enrolled in the School of Theology. Rev. Swenson was ordained deacon in 1973 and elder in 1976 having consequently earned her Doctor of Ministry degree from the School in 1975. Her local pastoral ministry included Claremont U.M.C., California; Orchards U.M.C., Vancouver, Washington; and First United Methodist Church, Wenatchee, Washington. In 1983 she was appointed Superintendent of the Puget Sound District of the Pacific Northwest Annual Conference.

In 1992, Rev. Dr. Mary Ann Swenson was elected to the Episcopacy at the Western Jurisdictional Conference in Las Vegas, Nevada. She was assigned to the Denver Area, and gave leadership there until July of 2000, when she was assigned to the Los Angeles Area, including the California-Pacific Annual Conference and the Korean Mission of the Western Jurisdictional Conference. During that time, she also served as president of the General Council on Finance and Administration of the denomination. In 2008, her assignment to the Los Angeles Area was extended to 2012, and she now serves as president of the church's General Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns.

With her husband Jeff, Bishop Mary Ann maintains an active lifestyle as a cyclist, and commutes locally by city bus: she has said, "John Wesley's 'the world is my parish' takes on new meaning when you ride the bus each day." She has become an outspoken leader in the denomination and in her communities, calling for a redefinition of the purpose of the church in a rapidly changing world. Bishop Mary Ann continues to lead the church with passion toward becoming a more inclusive community, filled with grace, compassion and justice, growing in more perfect love of God and neighbor.

Vision To Be the Cup Overflowing

*~ in a spiritually thirsty, physically hurting world,
so that all might “have life, and have it abundantly.”*

❶ To overflow with Grace:

What it looks like: people being disciples to make disciples; people walking the Wesleyan Way in fellowship with others; people creating communities where “the least, the last and the lonely” may experience God’s transforming grace, and are nurtured along their journey of faith, practicing Wesley’s Acts of Piety.

❷ To overflow with Compassion:

What it looks like: communities of believers being “the Body of Christ” in specific places of ministry, expressing God’s transforming compassion through the practice of Wesley’s Acts of Mercy.

❸ To overflow with Justice:

What it looks like: the Body of Christ fulfilling God’s prophetic call to speak truth to power on behalf of the powerless, so that grace, compassion and the life abundant may abound for all.

John Wesley’s essentials:

1. Know God, 2. Preach Christ, and 3. Seek Justice.

Covenant For Vital Ministry

Strategic initiatives within our mission to achieve the vision.

❶ Appointed Leadership:

- Developing appointed leadership through continuing spiritual and vocational formation for professional church leaders.
- Transitioning leadership into new responses to the universal call to ministry.

❷ Congregational Leadership:

- Revitalization of existing congregations, focusing on lay leadership and growing effectiveness in all three aspects of the vision.
- Transitioning existing congregations to new expressions of community and ministry.

❸ Future Leadership:

- “Project Samuel” (1 Samuel 3:1-9) Creating a ‘culture of the call’ to identify and nurture the next generation of professional leadership for the whole church (parallels and builds on the congregational responsibility for discipling.)
- Developing new worshipping communities.

Navigation

The Ministry of Order

Guiding, coordinating and resourcing our organization to fulfill our purpose.

- ❶ Leadership Team: the Conference's elected stewards of the vision, serving in partnership with the Cabinet, with the leadership of the Bishop and Conference Lay leader.
  - Holds the vision before the community.
  - Leads in continuing discernment and clarification of the vision.
  - Exercises oversight and coordination of the strategic plan.
  - Holds the system accountable to its mission and current vision.
- ❷ Communications
Nurtures and sustains a culture of communication and collaboration across the church.
- ❸ Council on Finance and Administration
Stewards of the real and fiscal resources of the Conference, aligning them to our mission & vision.

"The Wesleyan Way"

"This is our Wesleyan DNA, the code of compassion written on our hearts by our own transformation in Christ. I invite all of us to practice our Wesleyan code in our zip codes, the places where God has called and planted us to transform the world."

Shalom, Bishop Mary Ann Swenson
